COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

This collection contains records of the non-profit organization Heart Mates, based in Ithaca from 1985-2005. Originally the Tompkins County Heart Council, (the local representative of the American Heart Association), Heart Mates, Inc. declared independence from the national organization in 1985. It served the Tompkins County community with preventive and rehabilitative programs for patients with cardiac disease, and financial support for cardiac-related programs and equipment.
